GRADUATE COURSE

(G.R.S.M., London)

held jointly by

THE ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC

AND

THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF MUSIC

1930/31

16 JAN 1930

A joint course for the training of teachers in Music has been instituted with the object of enabling such teachers to acquire a qualification which will be recognised by the Burnham Committee as entitling them to salaries on the Graduate instead of the Non-Graduate Scale.

The Course will consist of two years full curriculum at either the Royal Academy of Music or the Royal College of Music, followed by a third year of special training in teaching. At the end of the third year, an examination will be held for the Special Diploma "Graduate of the Royal Schools of Music, London," and candidates who satisfy the examiners will have the exclusive right to append the letters "G.R.S.M., London" to their names.

In order to be accepted for this Course, students must be at least 18 years of age when the Course begins, and as a general education qualification must either possess the Matriculation Certificate of a British University or an approved alternative.

The alternatives which have been approved for this purpose are as follows :—

I. Either an A or B Certificate in one of the Examinations (1) to (8) below, commonly known as the School Certificate Examinations. No special credits are compulsory.

- (1) The School Certificate Examination of the Oxford and Cambridge Schools Examination Board.
- (2) The School Certificate Examination (or Senior Local Examination) of the Oxford Delegacy for Local Examinations.
- (3) The School Certificate Examination (or Senior Local Examination) of the Cambridge Local Examinations and Lectures Syndicate.

- (4) The School Certificate Examination of the University of Bristol.
- (5) The School Certificate Examination of the University of Durham.
- (6) The General School Examination of the University of London.
- (7) The School Certificate Examination of the Northern Universities Joint Matriculation Board.
- (8) The School Certificate Examination of the Central Welsh Board.

II. The Leaving Certificate of the Scottish Education Department.

III. The "Second Examination" or "Higher Certificate" and the "Matriculation" of various Dominion Universities may also be accepted but must be specially approved.

Students who at present have not acquired their General Education qualification may do so, at any time, up to the end of the Academic Year, 1930-31 (July).

Before sitting for the Diploma "G.R.S.M., London," Candidates must have passed either the L.R.A.M. or the A.R.C.M. in their principal subject.

The arrangements during the third year of this Course will consist of Lectures, Demonstration Lessons and Lessons under supervision.

Students taking the Course must choose a Principal Study which they may not change without the permission of the Principal and/or Director, of whom they should take advice as to their choice of a Second Study in their first two years.

Each Student must pass an Examination at the end of each year of the complete Course before going on to the following year.

No Student who has not reached the age of 20 at the beginning of the Michaelmas Term of his third year will be permitted to take the Special Third Year Curriculum, except by permission of the Principal and/or Director.

Students are only admitted to the Special Curriculum of the Third Year after a personal Examination conducted by the Principal and Director.

Students of the Course must qualify throughout the three years in the same principal study.

Students of the Academy who possess the necessary qualifications and who have reached the age of 20 at the beginning of the initial term (Michaelmas, 1930) may take the Lectures, etc., during the Academic Year, 1930-31, in lieu of their second studies, as the third year of this course.

The fees for the Course are £14 14s. od. per term, with an additional fee of £2 2s. od. on entering the Academy.

The Entrance Fee for the Special Examination at the end of the Course for the Diploma of "G.R.S.M., London" will be £5 5s. od.

The syllabus of the Course giving full particulars will be published later and will be obtainable on application to the Secretary of the Academy.
